Bio

Professional Beatles scholar Aaron Krerowicz won a research grant through the University of Hartford in 2011 to study the band and since has presented his findings through more than 300 presentations throughout the US and England. He has authored four Beatles books, and created a series of original Beatles drawings. Aaron also produces a series of 60-second videos called The Beatles Minute, which can be found on his website and YouTube. For more information, and to register for his free monthly email newsletter, visit his website: www.AaronKrerowicz.com.

Testimonials

“It took guts for Aaron Krerowicz to come to Liverpool with his theories on the Beatles, but the audience was completely attentive and asked many pertinent questions. A very good speaker and a master at multimedia presentations!”

Spencer Leigh of Liverpool, England and host of BBC
Merseyside Radio show On The Beat

"I was very impressed with your knowledge, and the fact that your presentation could reach fans at all levels of knowledge and interest."

Christopher, from Connecticut

"Too bad my college professors were not as talented as you in presenting!"

Judy, from Kansas

“Aaron was very knowledgeable about the subject and had clearly done extensive research. It was a lecture, but the audience didn't feel they were being lectured. He used many good visuals and sound clips to add interest and depth to his presentation. Aaron has a passion for his subject which is evident during his presentations. It was very enjoyable.”

Nancy, from Illinois

Program Repertoire

Each program description includes an “Analytic Rating” between 1 and 4 (with 1 being easiest to understand and 4 being most difficult to follow) to illustrate accessibility:

- 1 = little or no analysis (everybody should easily follow and understand)
- 2 = some analysis, but easily digestible by the general public
- 3 = substantial analysis (prior musical knowledge will help, but isn't necessary)
- 4 = highly analytic (designed for academic audiences)

The Beatles: Band of the Sixties

Explore the music of the Beatles in this 60-minute multimedia presentation (part history and part musical analysis) spanning the full 1960's: beginning with the band's seminal visits to Hamburg, continuing through Beatlemania, and concluding with Abbey Road. The program will be supplemented with audio clips of music and excerpts from interviews with the band members.

Analytic Rating: 2 = some analysis, but easily digestible by the general public

Before They Were Fab: The Beatles Prior to Beatlemania

Before the number one records and the deafening screams, before Ed Sullivan and “She loves you, yeah, yeah, yeah”, before the shaggy “mop top” haircuts and collarless suits, there were six future Beatles. This 90-minute multimedia presentation will trace the early history of The Beatles from John Lennon's founding of The Quarrymen in 1957, through their five seminal Hamburg residencies, and right up to the precipice of worldwide fame and fortune.

The Influence of American Rock 'n' Roll on the Beatles

Before the Beatles ever wrote their own songs or performed on stage, they were inspired to do so by American rock 'n' roll records. This 90-minute multimedia program illustrates the influence of Carl Perkins, Elvis Presley, Chuck Berry, Little Richard, and other American recording artists from the 1950's on the Beatles through side-by-side comparisons and musical analysis of Beatles covers and original recordings.

From the Shadow of JFK: The Rise of Beatlemania in America

Many Beatles authors have cited John F. Kennedy's assassination on 22 November 1963 as a cause of the Beatles' sudden popularity in the United States in early 1964. Their logic: Kennedy's assassination made America sad, then the Beatles made America happy again. But this commonly accepted answer is overly simplistic. America has suffered numerous tragedies and rebounded each time, but the popularity and staying power of the Beatles remains unmatched in American history. The real answer is that Kennedy's life and death inadvertently primed the nation for the Beatles' arrival and success. This 60-minute multimedia program explains how and why.

Being For The Benefit Of Mr. Kite!: The Beatles' Most Under-Appreciated Song

Somewhat of a sleeper track in The Beatles' Extraordinary catalog, 'Being For The Benefit Of Mr. Kite!' is actually one of their most interesting, complex, and sophisticated pieces of music. This 20-minute presentation analyzes the song from multiple angles (lyrics, harmony, structure, recording techniques, and text painting) to show why 'Mr. Kite' is The Beatles' most under-appreciated song.

Intermediate Piano

This lecture/demonstration, designed for people who already have a little piano knowledge and experience, will cover intermediate-ability tips and tricks for how to take basic piano playing to the next level using chords. Topics will include different ways to play chords, chord inversions, how to predict chord changes and progressions, and chord transposition.

Analytic Rating: 3 = substantial analysis (prior musical knowledge will help, but isn't necessary)
